What challenges do girls and women face at virtual school and work? What daily coping strategies can we all use to progress during distance school and work?

Assembly member Rebecca Bauer-Kahan is keenly aware of these topics as a working mother of three children. She will talk about this, as well as highlights and challenges during her first two years in office and her focus on other key women's issues.

Assembly member Rebecca Bauer-Kahan serves the 16th Assembly District (Livermore, Pleasanton, Dublin, Lafayette, Orinda, San Ramon, Walnut Creek, Danville, Alamo and Moraga). Please join AAUW-LPD for this energetic conversation!

AAUW-LPD (American Association of University Women: Livermore, Pleasanton, Dublin chapter) is a service organization that promotes educational and economic opportunities for women.
